CANDIDATE JOHN MANCINI ANNOUNCES ENDORSEMENTS FROM REPUBLICAN, INDEPENDENCE, AND CONSERVATIVE PARTIES

John Mancini, candidate for Milton Town Council, today announced that he has received the endorsement of the Republican, Independence, and Conservative Parties.

“I am honored to receive the endorsements of the Republican, Independence, and Conservative Parties in my campaign for town councilman,” Mancini said. “These endorsements give my campaign a tremendous boost heading into the summer and will help me spread my message of fiscal conservatism, government integrity, and a commonsense approach to the future.”

John Romano, Mayor of Ballston Spa and Milton Republican Committee Chairman, said: “The Milton Republicans endorsed John Mancini because we believe he is the leader our community needs for our future. I have known John personally for many years. He grew up in our town and is raising his young family here. He knows what it means to be part of our community and will work hard so that the next generation can have that experience.”

Lee Kolesnikoff, Saratoga County Independence Party Chairman, said: “The Saratoga County Independence Party is pleased to endorse John Mancini. John’s experience working with local governments makes him a well-qualified candidate. We believe he has the ideas, energy, and commonsense philosophy to do a good job for all the residents of Milton.”

Bob Roe, Saratoga County Conservative Party Chairman, said: “The Conservative Party strongly supports John Mancini for Milton Town Council. As a property taxpayer, he understands the need for fiscal conservatism and effective management. John shares our values and is committed to ensuring that Milton remains family-friendly and affordable.”

John Mancini grew up in the Town of Milton, and now he and his wife Courtney are raising their sons Jack and Spencer here. He works as counsel for the New York Conference of Mayors and previously trained municipal officials from around the state on ethics for the New York State Commission on Public Integrity. John is also an active volunteer in the community. He serves on the Ballston Spa Planning Board and was chairman of the Ballston Spa Bicentennial Committee in 2007.
